

AERO CLUB OF EAST AFRICA

CLUB BYE LAWS – AMENDED 8 OCTOBER 2023

INTERPRETATION

The Committee shall be the sole authority for the interpretation of the Byelaws currently in force. If any question of interpretation is raised in accordance with the Articles of Association at a General Meeting, the decision of that meeting shall be final.

ADMISSION OF MEMBERS

Application for membership by every candidate shall be made in writing on such form as may from time to time be prescribed by the Committee and signed by the candidate and by his proposer and seconder, both of whom must have been Life Full Country or Overseas Members of the Club for a period of three consecutive years at the date of application. The candidate should visit the Club at least thrice prior to joining and meet as many members of the Club as possible. At least four signatures of Committee members, and that of the Manager, are required on the application form. Before an application can be considered, it shall be forwarded to the Manager accompanied by the candidate's C.V., entrance fee and the annual subscription.

In addition, the proposed Member is expected to attend a short interview at one of the Management Committee Meetings.

The Proposer will be held responsible for the behaviour of the new Member at all times.

Candidates should demonstrate an involvement in aviation, or any related field. The interpretation of the Committee on what constitutes an involvement in aviation is final.

TEMPORARY MEMBERS

Temporary members are not eligible to vote, cannot run for office or Committee and are not entitled to reciprocation privileges and to introduce guests to the Club.

The difference sub-classes of temporary members are defined as follows: -

A) TEMPORARY MEMBERS

Temporary members must be introduced to the Club by a current Full, Life, Country, or Overseas members of at least two consecutive years standing, who will be the guarantor for the temporary member. This member may use all the Club facilities. This category of membership is restricted to a maximum period of three months, which period may be extended by the Committee upon request. Accommodation will be given at temporary residing members rates. The fee for this category of temporary members will be as agreed by the Management Committee and published by the Club.

Applicants for Club membership will be Temporary members once they have attended a short interview at one of the Management Committee Meetings and approved for the screening process.

B) FOREIGN AIR CREW

Upon presentation of valid aircrew identification, foreign aircrews may become temporary members of the Club, and may use all the Club facilities daily. There is no fee for this category of temporary membership which is valid for up to seven days per visit.

C) SPECIAL EVENT

The Committee may offer a temporary Special Event membership and will define the privileges of this category of temporary membership from time to time.

SPOUSES AND FAMILY

Membership of the Club is extended to Members bona-fide spouses and immediate family only. The spouse and immediate family of a member must be nominated by the Member in advance.

CHILDREN

- Members' children will be allowed into the Club up to the age of 21 years. Upon attaining the age of 21 years, all children of members must become members in their own right.
- Application for membership by children of members will be as per Article 7 of the Articles of Association of Aero Club, except that the proposer for the application can be the parent of the candidate.
- The amount of entrance/joining fees payable will be waived for members children whose parents at the date of application have been continuous members of the Club for five years or more. The amount of the first annual subscription shall be payable at the time of making application for membership.
- Members' children under-age of 12 years must be accompanied by a member.
- Children are not allowed to frequent the bar areas and members with children are expected to see that other members are not inconvenienced by their presence.
- In accordance with the law, children are not allowed to consume or be served alcohol.

PAYMENT OF ACCOUNTS

All transactions will be paid for by club card, cheque, credit/debit card or by M-Pesa on demand. Accounts for accommodation must be paid in advance. Members will not be accorded credit facilities unless agreed by the Club Chairman, Vice Chairman, or the Treasurer.

PAYMENT OF SUBSCRIPTIONS

Annual subscriptions are due on January first of each year. Members who have not paid their subscriptions by 28th February of that year shall be "posted" and advised in writing. Members who have not settled their subscription accounts by 30th April of that year shall be removed from the members list and shall not be permitted to enter the Club premises, even as a Guest. To be re-admitted, they shall re-apply and undergo the entire membership election process, including payment of arrears and the Club Entrance Fee.

GUESTS

Guests shall be admitted at the discretion of the Club and its management and must be accompanied by a member at all times.

Members shall be responsible for their guests at all times.

Members are permitted a maximum of six guests at any one time.

Members must not leave before any of their guests. If your guests are likely to arrive before you, please notify the reception in advance.

Full Life, Country and Overseas members of the Club may introduce guests to the Club. The same guest may not be introduced more than two times in a month and not exceeding twelve times in a calendar year. If the Committee is of the opinion that a guest is undesirable, it may direct the member concerned not to re-introduce that guest to the Club. The name of every guest shall be entered by the introducing member in the Guest Book provided and signed. Reciprocating and temporary members may in exceptional circumstances with the prior approval of the Management be permitted to introduce guests.

The introducing member will be wholly responsible for the guest.

No individual having been disqualified from the Club may be introduced as a guest of the Club.

RECIPROCATION

Reciprocating members wishing to use the Club must make themselves known to the Manager, produce a current membership card or letter of introduction and sign the Reciprocal Guest Register.

A reciprocating member may only use the Club for a maximum period of 30 days in any 12 consecutive months.

A reciprocating member who resides or whose place of business lies within a radius of 50 kilometers of the Aero Club of East Africa is not permitted to make use of the Club by virtue of any reciprocal agreement, with exception of members of nominated Clubs.

No member of a reciprocating club, who would otherwise be disqualified from entering the Aero Club may acquire the right by virtue of any reciprocal agreement.

SUSPENSION

If any member shall have infringed any of the regulations or Byelaws of the Club or whose conduct within the Club premises or outside the Club premises has been, in the opinion of the Committee, injurious to the reputation of the Club, the Committee may suspend the member and deal with the matter as they see fit.

RE-ADMISSION OF MEMBERS

Members who have resigned in writing from the Club may be re-admitted at the discretion of the Committee with payment of an entrance fee as determined by the Committee.

ACCOMMODATION

If a room is reserved but cancelled within 24 hours of the date booked, the person concerned may be charged the full cost of that room for one day and up to a maximum of 50% of the remaining period booked. It is within the discretion of the Management to do so.

No member shall occupy a room for more than 3 months in any twelve-month period. In exceptional circumstances, the Committee may extend this period.

Night rooms must be vacated by 10:00 a.m. or they will be charged for an extra night at the discretion of the Management. Day rooms must be vacated by 6:00 p.m. or a night charge will apply.

All charges for accommodation in the Club shall be regulated from time to time by the Committee.

CLUB LOUNGE AND READING ROOM

The Members Lounge and Reading Room should always remain quiet places.

The Reading Room will be open from 8am until 7pm, or as decided by the Committee / Management.

Children are not permitted in the Library/ Reading Room. Children under the age of 18 are not allowed in the lounge area unless accompanied by an adult and should behave in accordance with the Club's general rules for all members and guests.

These areas are not to be used for large meetings or noisy gatherings.

The Television must be kept at an appropriate low volume so as not to disturb others.

Drinks and snacks limited to crisps, nuts and biltong may be served at the Lounge and Reading Room. No other Food is to be served in these areas.

Members and their guests are expected to adhere to a minimum of clean smart dress code in these areas.

Management have the right to ask Members and their guests to vacate the Lounge and Reading Room, should they deem it necessary.

GENERAL

Chauffeurs, Security Personnel/Bodyguards are not allowed into Club buildings.

No Member, family or guest shall reprimand or use abusive or vulgar language to any Club employee. Any complaint with regards to service or to the conduct of any employee of the Club should be made personally or in writing to the General Manager/Committee. Any complaint with regards to the conduct of a Member, guest, or visitor, must be made to the General Manager and Management Committee in writing.

Members and their guest should vacate the Club at closing time. If a Member or guest remain in the Club after being requested to leave, the Member will be liable for any damage or loss of Club property.

No dog, or other animal, may be brought into the Club buildings or accommodation rooms. Pets can however be kept on a leash at the Crew and Pilot wing gardens. The owner of the Dog will be always responsible for its behaviour and must clean up any defecation.

Any member, their guests or children breaking or damaging any property of the Club shall present a letter of apology to the Committee and pay not less than twice the replacement cost of such property unless the Committee is satisfied that such damage was accidental in which case the amount charged, if any, will be at the discretion of the Committee.

Members are not allowed to bring food or drinks into the Club for consumption except with the approval of the Manager in which case an appropriate charge will be made at the discretion of the Management.

The charges and rules for snooker, pool, squash, and any other facilities of the Aero Club of East Africa shall be those laid down by the Committee from time to time.

Radios and music systems may not be used anywhere in the Club, except if authorized by the Management Committee in advance.

Mobile phones shall be permitted in "Silent Mode" the Club premises and grounds, but calls must be made and taken outside Club buildings.

Smoking, including of cigarettes, electronic cigarettes, vaping products of any kind, pipes, or cigars is only allowed in designated smoking areas that include the Bar Terrace and open areas outside the Club Buildings.

Members and their guests are expected to adhere to a minimum of smart/casual dress code in ALL areas.

Members and their guests are expected to treat the Aero Club Committee, fellow Members, and staff with respect. Loud or offensive language will not be tolerated at any time.

Use of photographic and recording equipment is permitted at the Club but within the bounds of good taste and in a manner that does not disturb other guests. Prior approval for the commercial use of such equipment is required from the Management Committee, in advance.

The Club's premises shall not be used for a general public function without prior written Management Committee approval.

By Order of the Management Committee

8 October 2023